Good afternoon,

Below is a list of DVDs that won't be released, because their release in their entirety would jeopardize public and officer safety pursuant to GC 6255(a). POST staff is currently reviewing these DVDs to determine what, if any, portions will be released on the public website. If any sections are deemed outside of GC 6255(a), they will be published on the website previously provided, as staff is available to do so. As I have explained in prior emails, the DVDs are copy protected, and were designed as an entire training package.
